Dr. Eberhard Heller
München.

My unforgettable friend:

I'm writeing this letter; it is bearer of my very much estimation for you, for your good wife, and for your two artistes daugteres.

Here I'm doing one's best not yet wked up by all those that are sleeping. All the monday I go up and down in order to instruct the how to pray the santly rosary; in the next place, I expose the sad and deplorable church's situation. In this guise, I'm Rooting out many persons of montiniana church. For the present I'm gaining gently two populatedes and very eighth days I'm visiting Them.

I Writed this letter wuith the dictionary's help, and I Writed wuith more work. Did you understand? Whether you not understood, pardon me. I don't speak neither I write anglish.

As often as not I Member that night, when your two daugtheres delight aurs ears so much pleasant. I think to be imposible to go newly to München; but though always distant, I have you profusely profoundly meddlesome in my heart, and daily I pray for you and also I pray for your family.

I want a photographyl of your family and Hiler's family also.

Deus sit tecum.
