Dear Dr. Heller,

Thank you for the copy of EINSICHT. I don't read German but I have some friends who read your language.

You're no doubt familiar with the Seraph, the periodical of Bishop Louis Vogelius O.F.M., of Rochester, N.Y. USA. and the Sangre de Cristo Newsnotes of Fr. Dan Jones in Colorado (USA). These are the only English-language periodicals of any size that supports the bishops.

Is there any way these periodicals, plus the one in Mexico (Artis?) could carry similar statements for the different languages, like Abp. Thuc's declaration?

I know of a holy <sup>(Sacred Heart Father (SS. CC.))</sup> remnant priest near New York City who believes (Mr.) Karol Wojtyla is part of the conspiracy, but won't come forward to admit that he... J. P. II... is an anti-pope (Bishop Louis knows who I'm referring to).

Do you print or record (cassette tape) anything in English.

May God bless you + Mary love you!

Ric Donnelly (Bro. Louis Nifazi, T.S.F.)

P.S. Fr. Leo McNamara, a holy priest from the former Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago, Illinois, died in the odor of sanctity in 1973; sort of a 20th Century Cure d'Arce, "Fr. Mac" never said the Novus ordo nor the 1960's version of the Tridentine Mass. He had St. Maximina's relics from 1968-1973.

P.P.S. Do you know of any Byzantine (Uniate) Catholics who support Abp. Thuc? address?
