Dear Doctor Heller,

Owing to very poor health which has kept me confined to bed for many months at a time, and frequent visits to the hospital, I am sorry that I have taken so long to thank you for your kindness in publishing not only in English, but also in German and French, my thesis on the invalidity of the new ordination rites of the Conciliar Church. In the interests of truth I am most grateful, and I am sure that God will reward you for it. I have challenged bishops here, but not one will accept the challenge to prove their validity.

I am delighted to learn that Archbishop Thuc has done his duty, and ensured the Apostolic Succession, which Lefebvre has failed to do. I am pleased to read in the August issue of the exposé of Pere Barbara and his nonsense about being schismatic. I am most surprised that he taken this absurd position.

I am sorry that I cannot write to you in German, but at the age of 73, and in poor health, it is too late to start learning. However I spread the good news among my friends, when I receive it in English or French, and wish you continued success in your fight for the Faith.

Yours sincerely,

Y. A. W. Howson
