

Dear Dr. Heller,

Geben Sie sich keine Illusionen hin ueber mich...Herr Wildfeuer and Mevec kennen meine "Vergangenheit"...

Neulich wurde ich unter die Lupe genommen und der hiesige Lokalpriester erhielt einen Brief-Rome-Apostolic Delegate, Chancery Office in Helena...bevor der Pfarrer den Brief mir vorlas schrieb ich bereits einen Brief und Deklaration an ihn, Sie finden eine Kopie desselben, ich sandte heimlich eine Kopie jenes Briefes mmt einem Brief an den Papst, letzteren in deutsch, durch eine totsichere Quelle...Nun wollen wir sehen...

Ich schreibe besser<sup>m</sup>englisch, da es mir besser geht. Everybody is hammering away at Canon Law, yet none of the Bishops and Cardinals observes Canon Law, if anybody would, there would not be such a mess in the Church, there would be no modernism, no Novus Hokus Pokus, because all these things are nailed down and forbidden by the Church. If they tell us to obey, let us ask them first: why they do not obey Canon Law? Under such circumstances certain Canons of the Law are suspended, otherwise the Law would kill the Church. Study St. Thomas, question 95...I mentioned it in one of my letters, it is interesting. Thus I regard it as unpardonable that Archbishop Lefebvre complied to Doepfner and Graber when they forbade him to say Mass in their dioceses...St. Paul would have defied both. The Apostles defied the "false" authority of the Synagogue...And we must defy the false Magisterium in Rome, which is false at this time with Villot at the Head. Even Pope Paul made mention of a "false Magisterium" two years ago, -I am glad that the Archbishop in Spain proceeded with those ordinations, this has no reflection on Clemente at all, just the fact itself. Any good bishop should take his example and ordain worthy men to the priesthood for the Latin Mass. One can forget about the excommunication-clause of 1951, this clause is at this moment suspended because of the crisis, this is the Law of St. Thomas. The Roman Rite today is the Novus Hokus Pokus, not the Pius V Mass, the real Holy Mass. The entire Hierarchy with few exceptions has embraced apostacy, so why obey apostates? It does not make sense. I told even great Card. Mindszenty that he did wrong for not exposing the masonic infiltration. Card. Seper i.e. came to the Vatican by the Grace of Tito, his diocese and seminary were not closed, all others were, why? He lifted the ban on Masonry, why? There is a Hebrew expression "Sepher", it would be interesting whether Seper has any relationship with Sepher...He is Jesuit, he "could" reason even God under the table...by twisting and turning words around. Christ and the apostles were excommunicated by the then "lawful" Church...Again: Canon Law ceases the moment it is being used for destructive purposes. God is above the Law. And it seems so hard for the intellectuals to understand this. I am sick and tired of the "law" and "authority", there is no authority anymore, they have apostasized, period. -Anathema to Doepfner and all the Bishops of Germany, anathema to Villot and cohorts, anathema to the pharisaical Hierarchy, anathema to each one. Where are the bishops who made an oath before their consecration to anathemize every heresy springing up against the Church? - The Br'nai B'rith holds sway, and, as known, only members of a certain "religion" can become members of that outfit. In Germany they are afraid to even mention these things. The Scribes and pharisees brought Christ to the Cross, and to whitewash those apostates, is helping Satan.

To accept honoring awards from that organization is to deny Christ, hosts of Bishops have received awards from them.

In the Bible of Jerusalem it is printed in black and white, too bad I have no xerox-copy anymore of that particular page: that Christ is the off-spring of an affair between Maria and Lucifer in the wedding night when she was menstruating, and that offspring, who is being worshipped as God by Christianity, is Satan himself... Thus you will find it printed in the Bible of Jerusalem by Guibbory, I believe, this is no fantasy. Anyway one who tries to please believers in such blasphemy is anathema before God. I sent once a copy to Bea, when he was still in Rome. The Jews have rejected Christ and they have persecuted the Church ever since her foundation. Let us stick to truth.

Emperor's Nero's wife was a Jewess who went to the Synagogue regularly, and it is believed that she became circumcised after he had her killed, thus you can read in the Jewish Encyclopedia, so now, of whose instigation was Rome burned down... so that Nero could have one more reason to kill Christians? There was a history book in Germany, which I studied when I went to the Gymnasium by Dr. Martens, Konstanz, I believe, saying that the Christians burned down Rome, how more assinine can people get. I was 14 at the time when I read that and put in the remark with my pen in the book: "a big lie". I could not prove it, I was only 14... These things just at the sideline.-

Anyway, it seems that because of my mistakes a few years ago, I am not permitted to defend the Church... by certain fanatical Catholics. I defend the Church anyway in my own way. Many of those one-sided intellectual fanatics are a great obstacle. They bring in authority, Canon Law, all the time, they are afraid to be excommunicated by Satanists, it seems even Archbishop Lefebvre belongs to that category. I wrote to him some years ago about my case, and he wrote me: "Allez à Rome..." I wonder what he would say, if I would tell him the same thing today... How can a Bishop deliver somebody over to apostates? The poor people are just afraid to lose their prestige, nobody wants to suffer for Christ, and they are ashamed to put the "infamy of the Cross" on their shoulders... The Apostles and millions of martyrs were not afraid and they paid with their lives for their courage. They, too, were branded schismatics, fanatics, rebels in their time, only history put the stamp of martyrdom on them. The same happened to millions of martyrs in Soviet Russia, thousands of Catholics and even Protestants in German concentration camps, thousands in Spain in the thirties and millions ever since in all sorts of countries, and the Vatican men, the infiltrators support the killers. They excommunicate the Archbishop of Vietnam for ordaining some... the brother of a martyr who was killed along with a few hundred thousand Christians in Vietnam, such is the reward dealt out by Judasses who let themselves be called Eminences, Excellencies... However, none of them will escape the wrath of God. I pray for them all, that they will not lose their souls in the end. Excuse the helter-skelter of my letter, I just fired away at the typewriter as it came to my fingers, Amen

Ora pro me,

Fr. Joseph Maria, and "outsider".

March 10, 1976.

In Nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti, Amen.

Dear Father,

Thank you kindly for notifying me of the papers from the Chancery Office resp. Rome.

I want to make this declaration. I had nothing to do with Clement XV anymore since 1966.

In 1967, Dec. 11. I was ordained and consecrated a bishop by Archbishop Charles Ignatius Brearley in Sheffield, England, as enclosed copy of my document will show.

I had this done at the request of mystics who said that Jesus wants this. Thus my lines of succession go into the Syrian Antioch Line and various other Eastern Orthodox Lines as well as in the Old Catholic Line- Utrecht. Rome has always recognized these ordinations as valid.

Later I realized that this was wrong, and I went to confession and received absolution from schism, heresy, excommunication and apostasy. I told the confessor that I cannot be lined up with any bishop because of the present modern heresies in the modern Church. Enclosed you will also find a letter which you will kindly study, you will see how I feel towards the Holy Father.

Furthermore, I cannot agree with the Novus Ordo nor other heresies, so I wish to preserve the Status Quo and kindly respect this, for the Council said, too, that we must live according to our conscience. Once the Catholic Church is out of this present turmoil then I will gladly submit my case to the ecclesiastical authorities, for in my heart I live and believe in the Roman Catholic Church, Catholic Dogma, Catholic Tradition.

St. Paul says in his second letter to the Tess.: If your brother does not walk in the apostolic tradition which we have handed down to you, then separate from him.

The Council says that we must stick to Tradition. The Holy Father issued a decree in Sept. 1965 saying that, concerning the Holy Eucharist, we must stand on the Council of Trent and Pope St. Pius V. This has not been done.- Ppope Pius V documents very clearly that no power on earth can change the rite of the Holy Mass, I will abide by that. To sideswipe his official bull would be going against Papal Infallibility.

Indeed, Our Lord said to Peter: whatever you bind will be bound- and whatever you loose will be loosened in heaven. But he was not saying that one Peter can bind and the next one can loose. Pope Paul, the Holy Father, has never made the Novus Ordo mandatory nor has he made the Tridentine Mass, the real Holy Mass, illegal.

Many times the Holy Father has announced and desired things, but his voice is not heard, and he is contradicted afterwards by "authoritative sources". Who are those "authoritative sources"?

Dear Father, you can forward this letter to whomever you want. I want to ask you once more kindly to notify the authorities, that I want to preserve my status quo.

I am a validly ordained bishop. I know it was done illicitly, but I believed in those mystics. Whether God wanted it, I do not know, let us leave this to God.

If they regard me as an Old Catholic Bishop, so be it. If they regard me as an apostate, so be it. St. Athanasius, too, was condemned and exiled 5 times. If it had not been for him, who knows whether the Church would still be around, of course, the Holy Spirit always guides the Church.

It is written in the Bible, that when the Lord comes again, will He then still find faith, for the Faith, the true Faith, will be nearly extinct then. I believe that the things which are taking place at this time are the forerunners of the great apostasy.

I pray for everybody, but it is against my conscience to submit to present authorities, because I would then be forced to embrace heresy and apostasy.

Through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Fr. Joseph Maria.

PS. My name was Raphael du Coeur Immaculé de Marie when I was affiliated with St. Jovite. I have separated from that place several years ago. I cannot accept their heresies. I also want to state that I was "finally" excommunicated and reduced to the laystate together with the Holy Father, Pope Paul VI, thru Clement XV on June 29, 1972. And the poor man, Clement XV, is in hell I hear now, which I would not doubt, for to go against the Holy Father, the Representative of Christ, is a serious matter.
